Wellness hiking, connecting with your inner self!

Immersing in wild nature, enjoying vibrant, nourishing food, and practising mindfulness for a 100% rejuvenating journey! Soaking up the sun and warmth while experiencing something truly unique, magical, and enriching.

Step by step, becoming aware of our bodies and sensations while moving along the path of an “open heart.” Connecting with the present moment, nourishing our bodies with wholesome, vibrant food, and exploring, through psycho-corporal and ancestral practices, an inner space of peace. Meeting our four dimensions – physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual – over the course of the days to harmonise Body and Mind.

A journey nourishing both the soul and the body!

At the heart of Cabo de Gata Natural Park, walking between land and sea, coves and mountains, in wild and unspoilt surroundings. While hiking, becoming aware of your body and mind, nourishing them with healthy, vibrant food. Using practices such as shamanism, mindfulness, and personal development to foster a deeper connection with yourself and others!
